

Executions in Maryland!

Governor-elect Bob Ehrlich has pledged to restart executions in Maryland as soon as he takes office, setting the stage for a possible 7 executions in 2003. This must not be allowed to happen.

Protest outside the inauguration of Bob Ehrlich in Annapolis on Wed., Jan. 15th.

Gather in Annapolis at 11:30 AM across the street from Lawyers Mall at College Ave and Rowe Blvd. Transportation is being organized out of DC and Baltimore. Call 202-726-1151 or email cedp_dc@hotmail.com.

Also, contact Governor Glendening immediately and demand he support emergency legislation halting executions until the MD General Assembly has studied results of the UMD death penalty study and makes recommendations on how to address racism, geographic disparities, and the threat to innocents in MD's death penalty.
